

2022 AMBER Alert Conference

Thursday, March 24, 2022

9:00 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.

Independence Civic Center, 6363 Selig Drive, Independence, Ohio 44131

Guest Speakers

Chris Hansen

American television journalist and YouTube personality. He is known for his work on Dateline NBC, in particular the former segment To Catch a Predator, which revolved around catching Internet sex predators using a sting operation.

Gina DeJesus

American author, Cleveland kidnapping survivor turned advocate and public speaker, Co-founder of the Cleveland Family Center for Missing Children and Adults

Beth Holloway

American speech pathologist and motivational speaker. Widely known in the international media after her 18-year-old daughter, Natalee, disappeared while she was on a high school graduation trip to Aruba in 2005.

Target audience:

Police Chiefs, Sheriffs, Mid-level and First Line Supervisors, Patrol Officers and Sheriff Deputies, Communication Supervisors and Dispatchers, Civilian Staff, Probation/Parole, Victim Advocates

Topics Covered:

AMBER Alerts, Endangered Missing Children/Adults, Blue Alerts, Internet Crimes against Children; Missing persons investigations and more

Cost: FREE

Continental Breakfast and Lunch is included

Registration is limited to 400 people

Registration will close Monday, March 21, 2022, at 9:00 am

Registration Link – click here to register

Event Sponsors

Lorain County Sheriff's Office

flock safety™

Hall Public Safety
UPFITTERS